A story of growing up with parents who have survived the unsurvivable, who land in Skokie, an idyllic northern suburb of Chicago, where they're suddenly free to live their lives, but find the past has arrived with them.

Praise for Looking Up: A Memoir of Sisters, Survivors and Skokie

"...funny, wacky, and heartbreaking...a story offering a unique perspective on the Holocaust, one generation removed from the war." - Cindy Sher, Editor, JUF News, and Writer, OY!Chicago

"Humor and tragedy blend seamlessly in this memoir of childhood upbringing and family trauma... A memoir whose heart pays considerable homage to its subjects." - Kirkus Reviews

"...A book about Holocaust survivors, yes, but it's also a coming-of-age story, a personal recounting of what it's like to live in a large family and the dynamics of the relationships within it." - Mike Isaacs, the Skokie Review, a Chicago Sun-Times Publication

Kveller - noun `k'vell-er

Kveller.com is a website for those who want to add a Jewish twist to their parenting. For many of us, this is no simple matter. Linda Pressman shares hilarious stories as a writer and contributor to Kveller.com.

Linda Pressman is a freelance writer, editor, and author of Looking Up: A Memoir of Sisters, Survivors and Skokie, which was awarded the grand prize in the Writer's Digest 20th Annual Book Contest and which is permanently housed in the collections at Yad Vashem, the U.S. Holocaust Museum and the National Library of Israel.
